

Turner Carver

Armchair

Description

The Turner Carver is a Scandinavian inspired, modern take on the classic Windsor Chair. Designed by Charles Dedman, it was awarded the prestigious Design Guild Mark in 2017. Featuring turned spindles and a steam bent armrest, its clean lines and intriguing design quietly enhance the room in which it sits.

Its ergonomic contoured seat makes it ideal for use as a dining chair, yet with a confidence that makes it work beautifully as a stand alone accent piece.
